

Prophecy Against My Wicked Land Of Russia

“Oh Russia, My people of sin, rejecting the righteousness of My Son. How shall I deal with you? For you love armies, and military might is what you are all about, planning on invading countries not your own and destroying them, even My land of the Middle East, My inheritance Israel. For you despise all that they do, and are planning on destroying them in a great military invasion. But it all shall be in vain, your military might incapable of defeating Me, the Living God, the God of Israel, and My land which I shall protect. For I see all your plans, Oh evil Russia, and they are futile before Me, for you cannot defeat the Living God, against Whom you fight. For I shall set your land on fire for doing that, and shall totally destroy you, except for one-seventh of the land in which you live. So expect destruction, for your military adventures are vain before Me, in Whom you serve unto your destruction. For I see all that you do and I Am displeased, even full of wrath against you, says the Living God, in Whom you serve. For I see the faith of your forefathers and ancients, and how far you have come away from Me. For I see all you do, even your preparations for world domination through military might, but it shall fail before Me, says the Living God. For you’re conducting your plans for a New World Order takeover shall fail to set up the Man of Sin, even the Antichrist, for you are a Christian nation, and many serve Me, not the military empire of

For I have plans against you, and you shall be reduced in number through various disasters and plagues. I see your sins, and you will not repent, Oh evil Russia, and for that I shall destroy you, amen! Thus says the Living God, Oh evil empire of sin galore. Amen and amen!"
